

Learning From Oppression and Resistance: Making Connections Between the Past and the Present

Directions: Refer to Part One of Urban Renewal or Urban Removal? to complete the chart below. Consider the great challenges First Peoples (American Indians) took on – and find similarities to events happening today. Provide clear examples and details.

Historical Events	Describe Some Specific Effects of the Event on the People	Similarities to Events in Today's Society?	Implications for You / Us Tomorrow if We Don't Learn from this Historical Event?
Many First Peoples (American Indians) became reliant on White goods and materials including alcohol, guns, clothing, utensils, and other items.
Some First Peoples were pitted against each other by Europeans which led to wars between Tribes. While struggles between Tribes existed before White contact, these became escalated.
In the face of a U.S. military attack, many American Indian leaders had to decide between retreating, leaving, fighting, forging legal agreements, or making some other survival plan.
